BOARD TO MEET THIS WEEK AT BOISE STATE UNIVERSITY

(Boise). The Idaho State Board of Education will meet this week on February 26-27, 2014, in Boise. The meeting will be held in the Simplot Ballroom of the Student Union Building on the Boise State University campus.

The meeting, which is open to the public, is scheduled to start with a work session on Wednesday, February 26th at 1:00 p.m. The work session will include a presentation by Idaho Business for Education, who will share results of a recent survey of more than 450 business leaders regarding the education needs of our state's workforce. The presentation will be followed by a discussion with the college and university presidents.

Thursday's meeting will include an annual report from Boise State University's President Dr. Bob Kustra and reports from the Public Charter School Commission and the Idaho Commission for Libraries.

The general session is scheduled to start Thursday, February 27th at 8:00 a.m. Agenda items include the presentation of a draft Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics (STEM) Strategic Plan and an update from Superintendent of Public Instruction Tom Luna.

The meeting will be streamed on the web at new.livestream.com/accounts/3801322/events/2794941/feed_embed?width=480&height=900.

Agenda materials and a link to the video stream are available at www.boardofed.idaho.gov/meetings/board/archive/2014/02_26-27_14/index.asp
